What is Special Education Today?

“They must learn how to communicate, to be creative, to engage in critical thinking, to solve problems, and to self-determine learning.” (Wehmeyer & Kurth, 2021, p. 1)

What is Special Education Today?

Who do we teach?

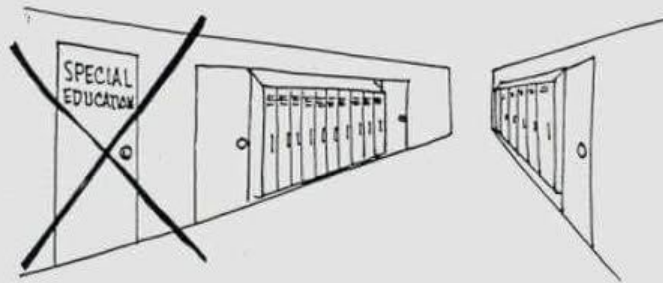

- “We teach students who, by virtue of meeting criteria set by IDEA, are eligible to receive special education services” (Wehmeyer & Kurth, 2021, p. 1)

What is Special Education Today?

“Logically, it seems to us, the special educator’s role within inclusive classrooms and in multitiered support systems is shifting to providing expertise about specialized instructional strategies that might benefit any student who is having difficulty learning.”
